CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS

AICCM no longer accepts credit card payments on this form. The only way to make a credit card payment to AICCM is to make it online via PayPal. All credit card transactions must now be processed online, whether directly by the member or by the secretariat on their behalf. As mailing credit card details and holding them in storage add to the risk, it is more secure for the member to use Paypal directly, rather than having mailed information entered over the net then filed away by AICCM after processing.
